Venue

Jeju Island is located at the southernmost part of Korea. It boasts unparalleled natural beauty in landscapes with four distinct seasons. After its proud designation as a Biosphere Reserve in 2002, “Jeju Volcanic Island and Lava Tubes” was nominated as the World Natural Heritage in 2007. Being selected as a Global Geopark in 2010, Jeju Island becomes the only place in the world which achieved the UNESCO Triple Crown designation. Hyatt Regence Jeju is located at the southern beach of Jeju Island. The place is well matched to the sceneries of Halla Mountain and dolphins haunting seashore.
